LODGES

UPPER ESCARPMENT

KINGFISHER LODGE:

Set on the banks of Lake Entabeni, Kingfisher Lodge is the most exclusive and luxurious of all the lodges, offering superb personalized service. In the main lounge and dining area the ambience is inviting with elegant decor, specially designed furniture and a fireplace ensuring an enjoyable and relaxed atmosphere. The lodge has a spacious lounge/dining room, which opens onto a wooden deck. The eight deluxe bedrooms are stylishly decorated and feature fireplaces, mini-bars and private decks. The lodge is also equipped to accommodate guests with mobility challenges. The honeymoon suite features an exquisite four poster bed and a Jacuzzi bath with views of the lake.

TOTAL ROOMS: 8 (1 wheelchair friendly room)

LAKESIDE LODGE:

Located on the banks of Lake Entabeni, luxurious bedrooms are linked by thatched walkways to the Reception, Restaurant, Conference Room and Boma. Lake Entabeni, 1, 7 km's long, lies between soaring bluffs and peaks, a wonderful place for bird-watching and viewing a rich variety of wildlife. The hippos of Lake Entabeni are a special feature. Enjoy sundowners on your own private deck with the always-changing colours of the Entabeni Mountain reflecting in the lake

RAVINESIDE LODGE:

Ravineside Lodge comprises tranquil thatched wooden lodges on stilts with magnificent views. Each lodge has 3 or 4 en-suite bedrooms with an African ethnic theme. A private open-plan lounge and bar area extends to the open sundecks. From here guests may indulge in bird and game watching and experience the beauty of the ravine with the rippling sound of water far down in the valley. Due to the location of the rooms and the number of stairs to climb, this lodge is not recommended for the elderly or for families with small children. It must also be noted that the rooms are situated some distance from the main lodge and guests need to be transported to their rooms from the main facilities.

LOWER ESCARPMENT

HANGLIP MOUNTAIN LODGE:

Discover the exclusive Hanglip Mountain Lodge with its 10 luxury en-suite thatched rooms on the lower escarpment of the malaria-free Entabeni Safari Conservancy, surrounded by wetlands and plains. This secluded lodge is refreshingly alluring with its unique blend of luxury and true African wilderness with views stretching over the lake and plains to Hanglip Mountain and the Waterberg Range.

WILDSIDE SAFARI CAMP:

Nestled against the majestic cliffs of the Waterberg Mountain lies Wildside Safari Camp where you can experience the wild side of the bush. Stay close to nature in tented chalets on wooden decks. Traditional South African hospitality and superior cuisine await you in the informal dining and bar area extending to the boma. Here, in the warm atmosphere around the campfire, you will experience an African night at its best.

DINING OPTIONS

Each lodge has its own restaurant and boma area

Kingfisher Lodge

The lodge offers a selection of venues ranging from the luxurious dining room to the deck, boma, garden or pool. Private dinners on your own deck or in the room in front of the fireplace can also be arranged. A romantic meal for two can also be organized on the bottom deck close to the lake. Various bush-braai and picnic venues are available for added excitement.

Lakeside Lodge

Meals are served in the restaurant, boma, garden, Springbok Bar, or lower deck, all boasting a breathtaking view of Lake Entabeni and the Entabeni Mountain. Outside venues are also available for that special "meal in the bush" experience (weather permitting).

Ravineside Lodge:

The lodge offer meals in the dining room and bar area, both equipped with fireplaces, or outside in the boma. The boma is situated in the shade of a 100 year old Fig tree amongst the beautiful gardens and various outside venues. Ravineside offers a selection of menus ranging from buffet to individually tailored menus for bush-braais and picnics.

Hanglip Mountain Lodge:

The lodge offers fine dining in the restaurant as well as in the garden or in the boma. Various outside venues are available for a traditional braai, picnic or for that special meal in nature.

Wildside Safari Camp:

Meals are usually served in the restaurant. The boma is however, positioned close at hand for those special evening meals around the open fire. The pool area is ideal for day time meals and light lunches. The Marula Boma is the perfect venues for that special "out in the bush" meal experience. Dining is informal.
